FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rutgers ROTC First Annual Run for the Warriors 5K Run NJ Governor Jon Corzine to Give Speech Honoring Injured and Fallen Soldiers

NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ, September 11, 2008 – New Jersey Governor Jon S. Corzine will be the keynote speaker on Saturday, September 20, 2008 when Rutgers University ROTC and Hope for the Warriors™ will host their 1st Annual Run for the Warriors™ 5K Run at Rutgers University, in honor of our wounded and fallen soldiers who served in Iraq and Afghanistan. The race kicks off at 8:30 AM at the ROTC Building on the Rutgers Campus, New Brunswick, NJ. All proceeds from the race will benefit Hope for the Warriors™.

Hope for the Warriors™ is a national not-for-profit organization dedicated to increasing public awareness of the plight and sacrifice of US Service Members and their families, catastrophically impacted by injury or death in the line of duty. In addition, Hope for the Warriors is an advocate and sponsor of community based programs to meet special needs, enhance the quality of life, and brighten the lives of these courageous men and women.

“Hope for the Warriors is excited to partner with Rutgers ROTC for this event and proud to become a part of Rutgers’s great tradition,” stated Tina Atherall, Vice President and Northeast Operations Director for Hope for the Warriors™. “We are so grateful for all the support. It’s an outstanding tribute to our country’s wounded service members,” she added.

The Run for the Warriors™ event begins promptly at 8:30AM at the ROTC Building - Rutgers Campus; 157 College Avenue; New Brunswick, NJ 08901.

For registration and/or additional information, please contact CPT Doug Larsen (732) 932-7311; or visit the Hope for Warriors website:
